MA Creative Writing

Our MA in Creative Writing develops your creative, critical and professional writing skills in a stimulating and supportive environment. You are taught by leading writers whose work encompasses a wide range of approaches and styles.

Please contact Dr Jo Thomas (j.thomas27@herts.ac.uk) for more information.

MA Folklore Studies

The stories we tell and the traditions we follow are part of our folklore, the shared beliefs and oral traditions that are handed down through generations. The MA Folklore Studies explores these legends, rituals, beliefs and customs, providing students with a thorough grounding in the discipline of Folklore Studies.

Please contact Professor Owen Davies (o.davies@herts.ac.uk) for more information.

MA Literature and Culture (Online)

Our online MA in Literature and Culture enables you to explore innovative and diverse texts and their many different contexts – historical, social and political. Your engagement will focus on themes at the forefront of contemporary culture, including identity politics, Otherness, and the environment.

Please contact Dr Chris Lloyd (c.lloyd@herts.ac.uk) for more information.
