In the Company of Wolves: Werewolves, Wolves and Wild Children 2023

Online Event: 20 October 2023
18.00–20.30 BST

This event invites you into the company of wolves to listen to their voices as they sound in 'our interpreted world'. You will be drawn into innovative research on the cultural significance of wolves, wild children and werewolves as portrayed in different media and genres.

In this evening of lively illustrated talks, we will situate the werewolf in a broader context of animality and sociality, challenging the simplistic model of the werewolf as the 'beast within', and embracing the werewolf as 'spectre wolf' instead.

This is your chance to take part in a challenge to redeem the wolf, join a discussion based on Marcus Sedgwick's essay on writing wolves and lies, and participate in werewolf flash fiction writing (40-50 words). We are launching the paperback edition of the OGOM Project book In the Company of Wolves which will be available at 30% discount to all our delegates.
