

Sea Changes: The fairytale Gothic of mermaids, selkies, and enchanted hybrids of ocean and river

6 September, 2025 to 8 September, 2025

Note: All times are BST (GMT + 1)

Conference Schedule

6 September, 2025

1 09:15 09:30 Welcome

Teams Conference Room 1

Assoc. Prof. Sam George (OGOM Project; University of Hertfordshire)

2 09:30 10:30 Parallel Session: Panels 1 and 2

1 Hybridity, monstrosity and taxonomy

Chair: Ivan Phillips

Teams Conference Room 1

8 The mercreature as metonym - Suspension and onto-epistemological resistance in the Blue Weird

Fredrik Blanc (Manchester Metropolitan University)

17 Wittgenstein's family resemblances and the hybridity of ancient sea monsters

Dr Ryan Denson (University of Silesia in Katowice)

63 The machine in the monster and the monster in the machine: Towards a teratology of technology through the techno-monstrosity of Nemo's Nautilus

Dr Kwasu Tembo (Lancaster University)

6 September, 2025

2 Aquatic romance 1

Chair: Andrin Albrecht

Teams Conference Room 2

54 Love, Atlantean style: Portrayals of merfolk sex, love and marriage in adult cartoon series

Raymond Rugg (Bridgewater State University)

55 Making waves: The fluidity of gender in merfolk mythology

Madelaine Sacco (University of Newcastle, NSW)

75 Forging the literati self: The merbeing in 'Bai Qiulian'

Dr Jie Zhuang (University of California, Irvine)

3 10:30 11:30 Plenary 1: Forging the mermaid in Romantic Scotland

Teams Conference Room 1

Dr Katie Garner (University of St Andrews)

Introduced by: Bill Hughes

4 11:30 11:45 Tea/Coffee Break

5 11:45 12:45 Session: Panel 3

6 September, 2025

4 Romanticism and sirens

Chair: Antonio Alcalá
González

Teams Conference Room 1

65 Let 'brooks and echoing falls repeat': John Thelwall's Fairy of the Lake

Prof. Judith Thompson (Dalhousie University)

69 'Farewel, ye Fair Illusions': The Distorted siren's song in Dryden's King Arthur and Shadwell's Psyche

Amanda Trainham (SUNY)

6 12:45 13:45 Lunch

7 13:45 14:45 Parallel Session: Panels 5 and 6

5 Myth and storytelling

Chair: Ryan Denson

Teams Conference Room 1

4 Tlaloc and Chac Mool over Mexico City: The haunting of Aztec water deities on Mexico City

Dr Antonio Alcalá González (Tecnológico de Monterrey, Santa Fe Mexico City)

71 The tale of the Mermaid of Thermaikos

Agelika Velissariou (AUPh, School of Primary Education, Thessaloniki)

6 September, 2025

6 Traumas, threats, and transformations: Traditional and contemporary selkie stories from Scotland to the Arctic Chair: Silvia Storti Teams Conference Room 2

1 Selkie transformations: Trauma, memory, and environmental exploitation in C. J. Cooke's A Haunting in the Arctic

Dr Ingibjörg Ágústs dóttir (University of Iceland)

28 Preternatural phocids: seals, selkies and the imagined sea

Dr Lizanne Henderson (University of Glasgow)

61 Mermaid love and seal hunting: The complexities of the Irish seal skin

Colleen Taylor (Boston College)

8 14:45 15:30 Mermaid Flash Fiction

Teams Conference Room 1

Dr Daisy Butcher (University of Hertfordshire)

9 15:30 16:30 Parallel Session: Panels 7 and 8

7 Light and shade in 'The Little Mermaid' and selkie fiction Chair: Rebecca Greef Teams Conference Room 1

36 Slipping off the sealskin: Examining the nuances of intimate partner violence in selkie mythology

Alexa Keough (University of Hampshire.)

38 Breaking the shell: How modern mermaid fiction rewrites the Disney Princess

Jubby Kumar (Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya)

43 'Part of Your world': The reinterpretations and retellings of 'The Little Mermaid' (1837) based on the history and society of the human world,

Protyasha Mazumdar (University of Hertfordshire)

6 September, 2025

8 Mermaids, hybridity and the aquatic environment

Chair: Daisy Butcher

Teams Conference Room 2

6 Water, desire, and crisis in the Southern Bayou: Alice Dunbar-Nelson's 'Natalie' as a modern mermaid tale

Dr Barbara Barrow (Lund University)

45 The Haitian Voodoo river gods: The shamanic call in Wilson Harris's The Secret Ladder

Shareed Mohammed (University of the West Indies)

80 Dark and watery metamorphoses: Mermaids, dystopian fiction, posthumanism

Dr Francesca Arnavas (University of Tartu)

10 16:30 16:45 Tea/Coffee Break

11 16:45 17:45 Plenary 2: A reading from the memoir Ring of Salt, drawing on the Selkie myth Teams Conference Room 1

Betsy Cornwell (Writer)

Introduced by: Sam George

12 17:45 18:00 Closing remarks and instructions for Days 2-3 at the British Library

Teams Conference Room 1

Assoc. Prof. Sam George (OGOM Project; University of Hertfordshire)

7 September, 2025

- 13 11:00 11:15 Registration - tea and coffee Lobby
- 14 11:15 12:15 Introduction and Plenary 3: The luck of the Ningyō: Hybridity and the rise of the fake museum mermaid Eliot Room
Assoc. Prof. Sam George (OGOM Project; University of Hertfordshire) Introduced by: Bill Hughes
- 15 12:15 13:15 Parallel Session: Panels 9 and 10
- 9 Aqueous creatures and gender identity Chair: Marion Troxler Eliot Room
- 12 From sea horror to queer grief: Representations of the sperm whale and the colossal squid, 1851–2021
Dr Monika Class (Lund University)
- 53 Feminism and spiritualism in Evelyn De Morgan's Little Mermaid triptych (1886–1914)
Cecilia Rose (University of Exeter)
- 59 The maiden in the mountain lake: Becoming-woman in Sigrid Undset's Kristin Lavransdatter
Dr Per Elben Svelstad (NTNU in Trondheim)

7 September, 2025

10 Hybridity and metamorphosis

Chair: Maria Beville

Dickens Room

3 Sirens in the city: On river spirits, politics, and the collapse of spatial limitations in Ben Aaronovitch's Rivers of London series

Andrin Albrecht (Friedrich Schiller University Jena,)

11 Habitat-fluid and water-bound: metamorphic characters in Mercè Rodoreda's 'The Salamander' and 'The River and the Boat' (1967)

Dr Anna Casablanques-Cervantes (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona)

16 13:15 14:00 Lunch and Exhibition

17 14:00 14:45 Parallel Session: Panels 11 and 12 (2 papers each)

11 Re-enchanting nature

Chair: Bill Hughes

Eliot Room

40 'Touch with chaste palms moist and cold, / Now the spell hath lost his hold': Sabrina, Nymph of the River Severn in Milton's A Maske Presented at Ludlow Castle (1634)

Beth Lettington (University of Hull)

73 'This modern world is a world where the wonderful is utterly commonplace': Dangerous disenchantment in H. G. Wells's The Sea Lady (1902)

Dr Amy Waterson (Royal Holloway, University of London)

7 September, 2025

12 Reimagining the merfolk of fairy tale

Chair: Shabnam Ahsan

Dickens Room

57 Venture where you will: the aquatic Other in fairy-tale retellings

Dr Silvia Storti (Early Career Researcher)

79 Cola Pesce and the Gothic Mediterranean: Hybrid bodies and haunting waters in contemporary reimaginings

Dr Elena Emma Sottilotta (University of Cambridge)

18 14:45 14:55 Tea/Coffee Break

()

19 14:55 15:55 Parallel Session: Panels 13 and 14

13 The Gothic Little Mermaid

Chair: Sam George

Eliot Room

10 Tentacular Defiance: An exploration of Hans Christian Andersen's Sea Witch and female sexuality in 'The Little Mermaid' (1837)

Dr Daisy Butcher (University of Hertfordshire)

25 Poor unfortunate souls: The Faustian bargain of 'The Little Mermaid'

Rebecca Greef (University of Hertfordshire)

67 Mysterious fathoms below: Exploring the depths of Disney's Gothic mermaids

Sinead Tobin (Lancaster University)

7 September, 2025

14 Sirens, selkies and the feminine

Chair: Maria-Silvia Cohut

Dickens Room

27 Femme fatale, occult waters, and siren Silencing in Louise Erdrich's 'Fleur'

Marci Heatherly (Pittsburg State University, KA)

78 A littoral rubicon betwixt and between

Ann Conmy (Technological University of the Shannon)

81 From birdwomen to mermaids: The divergent evolution of Sirens and Harpies'

Dr Amanda Potter (Open University)

20 15:55 16:55 Parallel Session: Panels 15 and 16

15 Mariners and merfolk

Chair: Francesca Sawaya

Eliot Room

7 Remaking the mermaid: Comparing nineteenth-century depictions at sea and ashore

Dr Karl Bell (University of Portsmouth)

16 Mignonette: The last voyage of The Mermaid and the cannibal erotic

Dr Emma Dee (Early Career Researcher)

29 When enchantment is made flesh: An exploration of the Steller's Sea-ape

Dr Charles Hoge (Metropolitan State University of Denver)

16 Folklore, fairies, and fish-people

Chair: to be confirmed

Dickens Room

35 Dis/enchantment and Enlightenment: Fish-men, folklore and fact in eighteenth-century Spain

Alex Judkins (University of Sheffield)

39 Changelings in the water: Folktales, folk beliefs and a literary afterlife

Scarlette-Electra LeBlanc (University of Hull)

42 Into the depths: Reading queerness in the water-horse tradition

Rachel Martin (Harvard University)

7 September, 2025

21 19:00 21:00 Conference Dinner

8 September, 2025

22 08:30 08:50 Registration - tea and coffee

Lobby

23 08:50 09:50 Parallel Session: Panels 17 and 18

17 Nation and nature

Chair: Maria Szafrńska-
Chmielarz

Eliot Room

20 The Nykur: An Icelandic water spirit in folklore and cultural memory

Mariateresa Esposito (University of Iceland)

21 A Mari Usque Ad Mare: Phyllis Brett Young's Undine and the female grotesque in the popular Canadian imaginary

Dr Kathryn Franklin (University of Toronto)

76 The transgression of boundaries: Urban's Hustrman between folklore and eco-Gothic

Valentýna Žiškova (Charles University/Sapienza Università di Roma)

8 September, 2025

18 Aquatic romance 2

Chair: Bill Hughes

Dickens Room

44 Submersive subversives: Encoded sexual fluidity in Hans Christian Andersen's other mermaid story

Helena McBurney (King's College, London)

46 Exploring female sexual expression through merfolk encounters in The Cruel Prince and A Court of Silver Flames

Deborah Moumane (University of Hertfordshire)

68 '[O]h, love, at last!': Dangerous nereids and deadly encounters in George Horton's Aphrôessa: A Legend of Argolis, and Other Poems (1897)

Georgia Toumara (Independent Scholar)

24 09:50 10:50 Plenary 4: Mermaid glitter: Fish scales, queer plastic and vibrant femininities Eliot Room

Prof. Catherine Spooner (Lancaster University)

Introduced by: Sam George

25 10:50 11:00 Break

26 11:00 12:00 Parallel Session: Panels 19 and 20

8 September, 2025

19 The divine and monstrous feminine

Chair: Emma Dee

Eliot Room

5 The metaphysics of Melusine: A tale of alchemy and initiation, reclaiming the Goddess

Allison Allen-Byrd (Independent scholar)

13 The Sirens' silence: Uneasy matriarchy in Lucile Hadžihalilović's Evolution

Dr Maria-Silvia Cohut (Brunel University London)

41 Water nymphs in Polish Romanticism: Pagan justice and feminine power

Agnieszka Łowczanin (University of Łódź)

20 Mermaids of poetry

Chair: Daisy Butcher

Dickens Room

24 The Romantic Lamia and Anne Bannerman's 'The Mermaid' (1800)

Jane Gill (University of Hertfordshire)

33 Undulant shapes of murderous femininity: Tennyson's aquatic creatures

Dominique Ionnone (University of Salerno)

50 'We heard the sweet bells over the bay': What links Matthew Arnold's 'The Forsaken Merman', Robert Rampling's landscape art and the legend of Jinny Greenteeth?

Dr Ivan Phillips (University of Hertfordshire)

27 12:00 12:45 Session: Panel 21 (2 papers)

21 Water-women of Japan

Chair: Sam George

Eliot Room

14 'The girl whose eyes were like the ocean': yuri manga and queer monstrosity in This Monster Wants to Eat Me

Dr Joseph Crawford (University of Exeter)

47 'A girl who came from the bottom of the sea': Gothic and feminist aspects in Hiroko Katayama's Tanka poetry

Dr Izumi Nagai (Osaka Metropolitan University)

8 September, 2025

28 12:45 13:30 Lunch

29 13:30 14:30 Parallel Session: Panels 22 and 23

22 Oceanic postcolonialism

Chair: Daisy Butcher

Eliot Room

2 Transgression And transformation: Mer-human relationships in the tales of Ruth Manning-Sanders
Shabnam Ahsan (University of Hertfordshire)

37 Indian ocean studies: Transoceanic memory in postcolonial Gothic sea fiction
Shahrukh Khan (The English and Foreign Languages University, Hyderabad)

60 An impossible outsider: Singaporean mermaid in Amanda Lee Koe's Siren
Dr Maria Szafrńska-Chmielarz (University of Warsaw)

23 Selkies and ecocriticism

Chair: Imke Lichterfeld

Dickens Room

9 The constant selkie and the changing sea: Fluid queer identities, interspecies kinship and ambivalent seascapes in Molly Knox Ostertag's
The Girl from the Sea
Dr Tina Burger (Heinrich-Heine University of Düsseldorf)

66 Selkies and adolescence: An eco-Gothic reading of anxieties in Tides
Harley Tillotson (University of Hertfordshire)

70 Merfolk and the beach: Resisting dualisms with tooth and scales
Marion Troxler (University of Bern)

8 September, 2025

30 14:30 15:30 Parallel Session: Panels 24 and 25

24 Ambivalent selkies

Chair: Sam George

Eliot Room

23 'Becoming with Seal': Mourning, separation, and kinship in contemporary selkie soundscapes

Dr Monica Germanà (University of Westminster)

31 Genre and gender in contemporary selkie fiction: Patriarchy, utopia, instrumentalism, enchantment

Dr Bill Hughes (Open Graves, Open Minds Project)

72 Selkie without seal skin: Mythmaking and storytelling in Fiona Macleod's rewriting of selkie tales

Heru Wang (Lingnan University)

25 Traumatic water-folk

Chair: Harley Tillotson

Dickens Room

30 The struggle of one thing twisting into another and back again': The re-enchantment of the sea lung in Julia Armfield's Our Wives Under the Sea

Fred Hook (Queen's University, Kingston)

62 Dead in the water: Narrating trauma through Tolkien's dead in the marshes and Rowling's Inferi

Stefanie Tegeler (University of Münster)

77 Wet brown graves: Irish Gothic bog bodies in Seamus Heaney and Miranda Carr

Claire Cunningham (Lancaster University)

31 15:30 15:40 Tea/Coffee Break

8 September, 2025

32 15:40 16:40 Session: Panel 26

26 Mermaids, Undines and the Arts

Chair: Ivan Phillips

Eliot Room

19 Burne-Jones's A Sea-Nymph and the displaced mermaid

Dr Andrew Elfenbein (University of Minnesota)

32 The fantastical narratives of Friedrich de la Motte Fouqué and Richard Wagner, featuring undines, illustrated by Arthur Rackham. Are those realms of enchantment under threat?

Victoria Hurtado (Independent scholar)

56 Mermaid ballets in the twentieth century

Dr Francesca Sawaya (College of William & Mary)

33 16:40 16:55 Closing Remarks

Eliot Room

Dr Bill Hughes (Open Graves, Open Minds Project)